A COLLECTION OF PAPER MONEY.

CONFEDERATE TREASURY NOTES.

1861; WRITTEN DATES.

An exhaustive and valuable work on the subject of Confederate Currency was published, ten years ago, by Dr. William Lee, of Washington, D. C., who had the fullest access to the Confederate archives in the possession of the U. S. Government; but the smallness of the edition (30) prevented the work from attaining the popularity it would otherwise have gained at the hands of collectors; and the concise and generally correct descriptive list of Confederate Currency published two years later by John W. Haseltine, became, and now is, the standard work of reference on this subject, and is adopted by me in the following descriptions. Dr. Lee had better opportunities of gathering the finest obtainable specimens of Confederate Currency than any other living collector, hence his collection, now offered entire, will be found very complete, and the notes generally in the finest possible condition.

A COLLECTION OF U. S. FRACTIONAL CURRENCY.

The finest and largest collection of U. S. Fractional Currency ever offered at Public Auction. Unless otherwise stated, each and every number in perfect condition and unused.

Mr W. W. Thurston, of Wellsville, N. Y., the owner of the magnificent and complete collection of U. S. Fractional Currency offered in the following pages, began collecting at an early date and never allowed an opportunity of purchase to pass without adding rare varieties, signatures, etc., to his collection. For this reason the collection will be found surprisingly large and varied, especially in the varieties of the 3d issue, 50 cent notes, and of the now excessively rare 15 cents essays, with portraits of Grant and Sherman, in which the collection is not only unsurpassed, but unique. Mr. Thurston did not collect fragments, designs, etc., hence those collectors looking for such will find nothing here of any importance or novelty, but collectors of the regular series, now rarely offered, will be amply repaid by a careful perusal of the catalogue, and will find this a rare opportunity of filling up their sets of Fractional Currency with specimens in the finest possible condition, and the sale being without reserve whatsoever, at their own prices.
